Oratory Contest not to be held in 2018

Congratulations to Julia Shipp and Mariah Sedlak, 1st and 2nd place winners in the 2017 Oratory Contest. Both are students at the TOG Homeschool of Elizabethtown, Ky.

The Right to Life Educational Foundation of Kentucky is the sponsor of the annual Teen Oratory Contest and the winner advances to the National Contest and is eligible to win $1,500. However, in the past few years we have had few entrants, so there will be no Oratory Contest in 2018.

Students and teachers, let us know if we should have an Oratory Contest in 2019.
