

We remember the January, 22, 1973 decision of the U. S. Supreme Court that made abortion-on-demand, at virtually every stage of pregnancy, legal throughout our country.

“The fight for the right to life is not the cause of a special few, but the cause of every man, woman and child who cares not only about his or her own family, but the whole family of man.”

“It seems to me clear as daylight that abortion would be a crime.”

“Abortion is the ultimate exploitation of women.”

Alice Paul American suffragist, feminist and women's rights activist

“How can the dream survive if we murder the children? Every aborted baby is like a slave in the womb of his or her mother. The mother decides his or her fate.”

Martin Luther King Jr., American clergyman and civil rights leader
