Hear Ann McElhinney – A wild Irish rose!

Ann McElhinney and her husband, Phelim McAleer, are Irish documentary filmmakers and best-selling authors. Their latest project is the true crime drama movie based on their book: Gosnell: The Untold Story of America's Most Prolific Serial Killer. The book was on the New York Times bestseller list and debuted at number three on Amazon, selling out in three days.

Ann and Phelim produced the Gosnell movie along with Magdalena Segieda. It is ripped from the headlines story about a respected doctor who ran a medical clinic in an impoverished Philadelphia neighborhood. But behind the doors of his clinic, the smiling, avuncular Kermit Gosnell was also America's most prolific serial killer. The project has attracted an enormous amount of media coverage on television, radio and with hundreds of articles written about the book, film and historic crowdfunding.

Ann writes for or contributes to an array of international media and she is a regular on a number of U.S. talk radio shows including The Hugh Hewitt Show, The Dennis Miller Show, and The Dennis Prager Show.
