

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

July 16, 2020

Greetings to each of you gathered for the Louisville Right to Life's Celebration of Life Banquet in recognition of 50 years of life-saving achievements.

Since its founding, the Louisville Right to Life has been a tireless champion for the cause of life through education and outreach, empowering women facing unplanned pregnancies to choose life and providing hope and healing to women and families in their time of need. Thanks in large part to your dedicated work and your compassion and care, life is winning again in America today.

I couldn't be more honored to serve shoulder-to-shoulder with the most pro-life President in our Nation's history, and under President Trump's leadership, our Administration will continue to respect the dignity and worth of the unborn and restore the sanctity of life to the center of American law. Through your prayers and through your ongoing work during this challenging time in the life of our Nation, I have great confidence that, together, we can continue to restore a culture of life in America and build a brighter future for generations to come.

As you mark this special golden anniversary and celebrate another year of life-saving achievements, I send my warm congratulations and best wishes for a wonderful evening. God bless you all.

Sincerely,
