APPLICATION FOR 2021 SCHOLARSHIP

These $1000 scholarships are offered annually by Right to Life Educational Foundation of Kentucky to assist students who are committed to the pro-life philosophy. All students from around the Commonwealth are eligible.

In 2021, KRTL in partnership with our local Right to Life Affiliates, will award four (4) $1000 scholarships.

The following criteria will be considered by a selection committee of judges:

1. Applicant must be a senior graduating from high school (home schooled students are eligible) in the current school year and have applied to a two or four year institution and then been accepted, and will enroll by May 2021 for Summer or Fall 2021 attendance.
2. Applicant must have demonstrated dedicated pro-life activity and attitudes during his/her high school years and a commitment to a continued involvement in pro-life activities in institution.
3. Applicant must be a resident of Kentucky.
4. Applicant can be, but is not required to be, a member of a high school Teens for Life club.
5. Applicant must provide two Recommendation Letters completed by adults (non-relatives) who are familiar with their pro-life involvement and attitudes. These should be completed by a pastor, Teens for Life sponsor, teacher, guidance counselor, or other adult familiar with the applicant's pro-life activities and convictions.

APPLICATION PROCESS

A completed application is due on May 20, 2021 and consists of:

1. A completed application form signed by the applicant.
2. An ESSAY/STATEMENT (not to exceed 2 to 3 typed double-spaced pages) from the applicant describing how specific pro-life activities during high school have affected the applicant's beliefs and philosophy and how it relates to his/her personal life mission.
  - Applicant should give a description of his/her commitment to continue to support life issues throughout his/her student years.
  - Applicant should articulate a personal and consistent pro-life philosophy "on a conception to natural death."
3. ACTIVITIES LIST. A complete list of activities, experiences, and volunteering during high school, particularly the extent of participation and involvement in pro-life and Teens for Life activities, including dates, hours per week, leadership and awards.
4. TWO RECOMMENDATION LETTERS (completed by two adults as explained in #5 above). Email or mail these letters with the application. (If emailing, the preferred files are .pdf or .docx. If mailing, the adult can mail it directly to RTL Educational Foundation office postmarked by the May 20, 2021 deadline.)

EVALUATION CRITERIA

1. The applicant will be judged on his/her outstanding achievements in, and dedication to, the protection of all human life. His/her pro-life efforts can be in the area of volunteering, organizing, fundraising, education, prayer, or service (to the elderly, the disabled, or pregnant women), a combination of any or all, or any other involvement that promotes the mission and goals of Right to Life Educational Foundation of Kentucky.

The mission of Right to Life Educational Foundation of Kentucky is to promote respect for the worth and dignity of all human life, including the lives of the unborn from the moment of conception, and the disabled and the elderly, until their natural death. (Abortion, Infanticide, Assisted Suicide, Euthanasia...)

2. The selection committee will consider the applicant's participation and involvement in pro-life activities, the attitudes, abilities and leadership qualities he/she demonstrates that show a respect for all life and the commitment to continue his/her involvement throughout his/her institution education.

Additional information may be requested and required from the applicant.

The $1000 scholarships will be awarded in May 2021. Each winner shall provide at that time the name of the institution that he/she will be attending if not indicated and known at the time of the application.
