Featuring Mark Schultz

A lot of artists talk about chasing their dreams, but for Christian recording artist Mark Schultz, it's never been about the chase. Instead, it's about following God's call. Boasting 2 million records sold to date, ten No. 1 singles, and a Dove Award, Mark cherishes the call of fatherhood above all. "Follow", his most recent powerful title track, parallels how he navigates his life, not by his own will, but by God's. The most recent step of faith that Schultz and his wife have taken is adopting. The adoption was a full-circle moment for Schultz, who is also adopted. Now, being on the parental side of adoption, Schultz says he views being adopted in a totally different way.

There will be many ways to contribute to the pro-life cause during the evening. Before dinner, silent auction items will be available to bid on, raffle tickets will be sold on money and gift card trees, and membership envelopes will be available. After dinner, a financial appeal will be made. Gaming exception#EXE-2062
